The Candy Apple family finds themselves in a sticky situation — too much taffy to be allowed in Fruitopia, but too much fruit to be on the approved candy list to live in Candy Kingdom. They must journey across the land to petition King and Queen Candybar to allow them to stay. Along the way, they encounter helpful candy friends and uncover a plot by Baron Von Licorice to seize control of Candy Kingdom. Can the villainous baron's plan be stopped? And will the Candy Apple family find a welcoming place they can call home? This “Candyland” meets “Wizard of Oz” play is a fun adventure for the whole family!
